

U.S. Department of Justice
Executive Office for Immigration Review
Office of Policy
5107 Leesburg Pike
Falls Church, Virginia 22041

NOTICE

Contact: Communications and Legislative Affairs Division
Phone: 703-305-0289
PAO.EOIR@usdoj.gov @DOJ_EOIR
www.justice.gov/eoir

June 18, 2019

Executive Office for Immigration Review Announces New Chief Administrative Law Judge

FALLS CHURCH, VA – The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) today announced the investiture of Jean King as the chief administrative law judge in EOIR’s Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer. Chief Administrative Hearing Officer Robin Stutman presided over the investiture during a ceremony held today at EOIR headquarters in Falls Church, Va.

Biographical information follows:

Jean King, Chief Administrative Law Judge

Attorney General William Barr appointed Jean King as the chief administrative law judge in June 2019. Immediately prior to assuming her current duties, she served as general counsel of the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) beginning in September 2015. Ms. King received a bachelor of arts degree in 1988 from Brown University and a juris doctorate in 1995 from the College of William and Mary. From July 2015 to August 2015, and previously from December 2012 to October 2014, Ms. King served as deputy general counsel, EOIR. From November 2014 to June 2015, she served as acting general counsel, EOIR. From October 2011 to December 2012, she served as a counsel to the director, EOIR. From March 2011 to October 2011, she served as acting director of operations, Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA), EOIR. From 2009 to March 2011, Ms. King served as a temporary board member, BIA. From 2006 to 2009, she was a senior legal advisor at the BIA. From 1996 to 2006, she served as an attorney advisor at the BIA. Prior to joining the BIA, Ms. King spent one year as a judicial law clerk with the Superior Court of Connecticut. Ms. King is a member of the Connecticut and New York State bars.

— EOIR —